For the Children.

Our Baby.

My little baby sister
Is just the funniest pet!
She'll be three years old to-morrow,
But we call her "Baby" yet.
She is never really naughty
But to-night she shook her head,
Determined to romp and frolic.
When I made her ready for bed.

But the violet eyes half opened
When I laid her down to rest,
And, as I stooped to kiss her,
She murmured, in her nest:
'I'll be the bestest baby,
And go to heaven, I guess;
But when I has dot white wingson,
How s'all I button my dwess?"
—SEL.

A Boy's Religion.

"My son," said Legh Richmond, "remember you must die, and you may die soon, very soon. If you are to die a boy, we must look for a boy's religion, a boy's knowledge, a boy's faith, a boy's Savior, a boy's salvation; or else a boy's ignorance, a boy's obstinacy, a boy's unbelief, a boy's idolatry, a boy's destruction. Remember all this and beware of sin; dread the sinfulness of an unchanged heart, pray for a new one, pray for grace and pardon, and a soul conformed to the image of Christ Jesus."

A Sharp Voice.

There is no power of love so hard to get and keep, as a kind voice. A kind hand is deaf and dumb. It may be rough in flesh and blood, yet do the work of a soft heart, and do it with a soft touch. But there is no one thing that love so much needs as a sweet voice to tell what it means and feels; and it is hard to get and keep it in the right tone. One must start in youth, and be on the watch night and day, at work and play, to get and keep a kind voice that shall speak at all times, the thoughts of a kind heart.

But this is the time when a sharp voice is apt to be got. You often hear boys and girls say words at play, with a sharp, quick tone, as if it were the snap of a whip. When one of them gets vexed, you will hear a voice that sounds as if it were made up of a snarl, a whine, and a bark. It is often in mirth that one gets a voice or a tone that is sharp, and it sticks to him through life, and stirs up ill-will and grief, and falls like a drop of gall on the sweet joys of home. Watch it day by day, as a pearl of great price, for it will be worth more to you in days to come, than the best pearl hid in the sea. A kind voice is to the heart, what light is to the eye. It is a light that sings as well as shines. Train it to sweet tones now, and it will keep in tone through life.
—ELIHU BURRITT.

He'll not Wait.

Some months after a young man's conversion, he chanced to meet one of his former dissolute companions who seemed overjoyed to see him and asked him into a neighboring bar-room. But the young man refused, saying, "I have a friend with me."

"I don't see any one with you."

"You can't see him, but he is here."

"Bring him in with you."

"No, he never goes into bar-rooms."

"Then let him wait outside."

"No, no!" was the final answer. "My friend is Jesus Christ; and if I go in with you he'll not wait."

Noble answer was this! And like his Lord, he was delivered by it from the power of evil.

Remember, this best Friend "will not wait" outside of places of sin. Who can take his place if he leaves you?
—GLAD TIDINGS.

Little Four-Marys.

They all live in the same house. They all have the same room; and the fact is, they are all in the same body. But they do not think the same thoughts or want to do the same thing. So it is often hard for them to live together without quarreling.

In the morning the rising bell rings.

"We must get up," said Mary Loving. She always wants to please her mother; and she has not told anybody, but she has promised Jesus she would try to serve him.

"I do not want to get up," says Mary Lazy.

"Oh never mind the bell," says Mary Selfish.

"I won't get up," says Mary Wilful.

So they all lie together awhile longer.

Then the mother calls.

"Yes'm" says Mary Loving.

"Oh, I hate to get up said the other three.

"But they all agree that they must mind mamma, and slowly arise.

"We must put in a new shoe-string," says Mary Loving.

"Oh, knot the old one," said Mary Lazy.

"No, we must have a new shoe-string," says Mary Loving, so the rest allow her to put it in.

But Mary Wilful will not stop to sew a button on their dress; and Mary Lazy thinks her hair will do, if it isn't quite smooth. Did you ever meet these little girls?—
WELL-SPRING.

A boy was asked which was the greatest evil, hurting another's feelings or finger? "The feelings," said the boy. "Right my dear child," said the gratified questioner; "and why is it worse to hurt the feelings?" "Because you can't tie a rag around them," exclaimed the child.

Go to Ashland College for an education.

The Short Business Course.

This new feature of the the Business Department of Ashland College exactly meets the wants of young people who have not the means and time to take a a complete Business Course, and yet desire to have an intelligent and practical acquaintance with the methods of keeping books, and methods of doing business.

This Course requires only twenty weeks and the expense need not exceed seventy dollars, for board and tuition.

Young men and ladies residing upon farms, will find the knowledge that can be secured in this short time, of immense value to them in future life, and probably the means of saving many dollars to them.

Ashland College, we believe, is the only institution in this part of the country, that offers such an opportunity. The twenty weeks comprising this Course, will commence Oct. 20, 1885, and end March 12, 1886, with a vacation of two weeks during the holidays.

Chronic Dysentery.

Mr. James Brannan, Second avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "For two years I have been constantly troubled with a chronic diarrhœa, or dysentery, having had, on an average, from twenty to twenty-five passages every twenty-four hours, and every one bloody. I had thoroughly tried all the prominent physicians in Pittsburgh, was twice in the West Penn Hospital, the first time thirteen weeks, and though I left it much better, yet in five days I was as bad as ever. I then tried two other great doctors in this city, and one of them finally assured me I was not long for this world, and advised me to write to my friends about it. I next went to Dr. Hartman, without the least confidence that he could do anything for me. He examined me, smiled, and said, he could stop the bloody discharges in less than two weeks, which he did with PERUNA, and I have now been entirely well for several weeks, and never felt better in my life, though I am still taking his PERUNA. I will take it whenever I need medicine.

Mr. Patrick Burns, Pittsburgh, writes: "I have suffered intensely from piles and chronic diarrhœa. I was treated by five of the best physicians and surgeons in the city of Pittsburgh, and I with all grew constantly worse. Finally three of them said my only hope was an operation. This frightened me, and I went immediately to Dr. Hartman, who has entirely cured me with PERUNA. I have been at work now for three months, and never in my life felt better. Call and see me at corner of Twenty-seventh and Mulberry streets, Twelfth ward, Pittsburgh."

Mr Patrick Cunningham, S. S., near Sidney street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "For five years I have suffered inexpressibly from internal and external piles. I have tried the best physicians of Pittsburgh and Allegheny without relief. I went to Dr. Hartman, who cured me without detention from work with PERUNA."

Charles Frank, of Emrichville, Jefferson county, Ohio, writes: "I had piles and fistula in ano for four years. I had suffered constantly with a discharge of matter from the parts, and sometimes from the contents of the bowels through it. I could not have borne it much longer. I had heard so much of the ill effects of a knife operation that I resolved to go to Dr. Hartman. He ridiculed the silly idea of cutting it, and at once performed his own original operation without the knife, and without pain. I am thoroughly cured, though of course I took PERUNA."

PE-RU-NA is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00. If you cannot get it of your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, don't be persuaded to try something else, but order from us as directed. S. B. HARTMAN, & CO., Columbus, Ohio.
